

ANNUAL REPORT ON EQUALITY

6 APRIL 2011 TO 31 MARCH 2012

Bangor University – Equality Mission Statement

Bangor University is committed to providing an environment where all staff and students can fulfil their potential and contribute to the university's success. We are committed to equality of opportunity and to the elimination of discrimination on the basis of race, gender, age, disability, religion, sexual orientation, or any other grounds.

Our equality mission statement is to ensure that all staff and students have equal access to all university services and that all staff and students are treated with respect and dignity.

- to ensure that all staff and students have equal access to all university services and that all staff and students are treated with respect and dignity
- to ensure that all staff and students have equal access to all university services and that all staff and students are treated with respect and dignity
- to ensure that all staff and students have equal access to all university services and that all staff and students are treated with respect and dignity

Introduction

The Equality Act 2010 is a landmark piece of legislation that consolidates and extends the law relating to equality in Great Britain. It covers a wide range of areas, including employment, education, access to goods and services, and the provision of public services. The Act is designed to ensure that everyone is treated fairly and has the same opportunities as everyone else.
