

WORK ENVIRONMENT

Primary focus of innovation and productivity and the impact on the quality of work life in the workplace.

Secondary focus

Occasionally required to identify and address the needs of the organization in order to provide a safe and healthy work environment, including the physical, mental, and social well-being of the organization.

PASTORAL CARE AND WELFARE

Occasionally to ensure that the needs of the organization are met, including the physical, mental, and social well-being of the organization.

Occasionally to provide support and advice for the organization, including the physical, mental, and social well-being of the organization, and to provide support and advice for the organization, including the physical, mental, and social well-being of the organization.

TEAM DEVELOPMENT

(training those outside the work team should be included under Teaching & Learning Support)

Equally to ensure that the needs of the organization are met, including the physical, mental, and social well-being of the organization.

TEACHING AND LEARNING SUPPORT

Provide and disseminate information and advice to the organization, including the physical, mental, and social well-being of the organization.

KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE

Be efficient in the use of resources and to ensure that the organization is able to meet the needs of the organization, including the physical, mental, and social well-being of the organization.